As a Christian, he wonders how he can know specifically what God wants him to do.Do you know any students like Bobby who have major decisions to make and would like to know God s will? Do you know what to tell them? Do you know how to help? During their search for God s will in their lives, there is one thing for sure they could use: a 911 friend -a friend who . .is always loyal and a brother [and sister who] is born to help in time of need (Prov. 17:17)Through the aid of a gripping true-to-life story, Josh McDowell, along with Ed Stewart, offers biblical insights and practical instruction on how to find God s specific will in one s life. But more importantly, you will learn how to become a true source of encouragement and guidance to someone wanting to know God s will. This book is designed for you to read first and then give to your friendAnd if you are that person facing some major issues in life, you will discover key scriptural principles to making tough personal decisions. But more than that, you will find that God really does care about the details of your life and wants what s best for you, and so does your friend-most likely the person who gave you this book.
