Not illustrated. 1875 Excerpt: .to sunday-school children generally, but it was too long to be repeated. It took effect immediately, and except wry faces and bodily contortions, the whole class was perfectly quiet for fully a minute and a half. I will now, said I, tell you about Daniel. He was a good man of the Jewish nation, who lived long long ago. He prayed three times a day, but bo had a great many enemies. They never prayed at all. Daniel prayed three times a day, but these wicked men not even once a day. Just in this connection I noticed that one of my scholars was standing up with his fingers placed over his eyes in the orthodox fashion praying! T called him to order and went on with my story. These bad men persuaded the king of the country to forbid Daniel to pray. Now what do...
