Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Twenty-four years ago when I was in the Air Force and on a military base in Qatar during Operation Friction, I wrote a short story that went viral at our camp in the desert populated with about four hundred men and twelve women. It had been a request from a fellow soldier. Being surrounded by men, he asked for something sexy he could read and if I would write it. At the time, we were at work waiting for the aircraft to come back from their mission, so I sat down under the camouflage netting erected to shield us slightly from the hot desert sun, and took pen to paper in an attempt to deliver on Georges s request. The story ended up being two or three foolscap sheets written by hand. I never saw it again after handing it over to Georges, who read it directly as I sat eagerly awaiting his response. Immediately upon finishing the story, Georges leaned over, grabbed his glass of water, and splashed himself in the face. The story was hot. I...
