Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Trial of Antichrist: Otherwise the Man of Sin, for High Treason Against the Son of God The Author of the following pages takes the liberty of introducing them before the public, in hopes that they may convey information and profit. He has before evinced that he considers the controversy between Truth and Error of no small moment, and that the doctrines maintained by the Church of Rome demand the most serious investigation. He is aware of the offence he is likely to give, both to Roman Catholics and others, who reject the precept of an inspired Apostle, to Try the spirits whether they are of God. To such he has only to observe that he views himself in the path of duty, in not walking by their rule. The encouragement he has received, from many, proves that there are yet in Ireland those who respect the Protestant Faith. To such he doubts not the Trial of Antichrist will prove acceptable. Some have intimated to him his personal danger from those who are zealous for the Roman Catholic faith. This is one argument, why that religion should be contended with, which will justify an injury done to another who differs from it. It is a clear proof that it is not of God.
