AWAKENED TO A CALLING REFLECTIONS ON THE VOCATION OF MINISTRY

Abingdon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 96 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.3in. For anyone responding to a call to the ministry, this book will be an excellent guide. --Jimmy Carter, Thirty-ninth President of the United States and Nobel Peace Prize Winner The Fund for Theological Education (FTE) annually invites our nations premier preachers to address a group of young adults who are considering a vocation in pastoral ministry. As part of the FTEs honoring of their outgoing president, Dr. James Wait, for his remarkable service, they have collected these superb sermons. These eight sermons on vocation offer an important resource for high school and college students making vocational decisions, for older adults considering vocational changes, and for all who teach and mentor in the area of vocational discernment and who help others sort out a commitment to professional ministry. The purpose of the Ministry Conference, and the sermons delivered at the event, intersects well with Abingdons mission to help form pastors who will serve the church faithfully and effectively. The preachers are highly recognizable and respected individuals who will serve as trusted and wise guides for discerning a ministry vocation. They include Fred Craddock, Walter Brueggemann, Tom Long, Barbara Brown Taylor, and Brad Braxton. The volume includes an annotated bibliography of publications on ministry as a vocation, and a foreword by Dr. James T. Laney, former Ambassador to South Korea, President of Emory University, and Dean of Candler School of Theology. He is currently a faculty member of Emorys Center for Ethics. He chairs the United Board for Christian Higher Education in Asia, is a trustee of the Henry Luce Foundation, and chairs (with Andrew Young) The Faith and The City Program in Atlanta. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN....
