You say you will eat grass on his grave. A Christian eat grass! Whereby you now confess yourself to be a goose or an ass. But that s as much as to say, that my master should die before ye; Well, well, that s as God pleases; and I don t believe that s a true story; And so say I told you so, and you may go tell my master; what care I? Mary. And I don t care who knows it; tis all one to Every body knows that I love to tell truth and shame the devil: I am but a poor servant; but I think gentlefolks should be civil. Besides, you found fault with our victuals one day that you was here; the year: I remember it was on a Tuesday, of all days in And Saunders, the man, says you are always jesting and mocking. Mary, said he, (one day as I was mending my master s stocking) My master is so fond of that minister that keeps the school--I thought my master a wise man, but that man makes him a fool....
