This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Essay from the year 2008 in the subject History - Miscellaneous, printed single-sided, grade: 2,3, University of Cape Town (Department of Historical Studies), course: Hollywood & Vietnam, language: English, abstract: The traumatic experiences of their own troops and the fact that they were fighting against a largely invisible enemy may provide a hint at why U.S. film-makers hardly yielded any space to the depiction of the Vietnamese in the first major portrayals of the Vietnam War. The expectation of a failure at the box office was probably even more decisive. The Vietnamese point of view was at first almost completely ignored. The representation of the Vietnamese was mostly reduced to the fulfilment of merely functional purposes. In films like Apocalypse Now and The Deer Hunter they are either victimized or demonized, while in Hamburger Hill they may be promoted to the role of formidable enemies but are otherwise left in the dark. There is no discernible effort made in these films to take a closer look at either the Vietnamese or at their country. This changes...
