Reviews

The publication is easy in read better to understand. It is writer in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).

Harrison House. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Life After Loss: Finding Hope Again in God, Pam Dressler, There is no greater loss that a mother or father can experience than the death of a child. Parents, siblings, extended family, and friends all share in a grief that seems too great to bear. With love and tender compassion, Pam Dressler shares with readers the poignant and heartbreaking story of the tragic death of her beloved three-year-old daughter, Alexandra--"Alli." And with a wisdom that can come only from the heart of God, Pam leads those who are experiencing deep personal loss through tragedy to the comfort of a loving Savior, where they will discover understanding, compassion, peace, and hope for their own hearts. As a Christian, Pam experienced the questions and emotions of grief including. "Why God?," "Am I to blame?," "I can't forgive myself," and even "I am mad at God." As one who has received God's supernatural help, Pam is able to testify with a gentle confidence: "The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:7). This book is for those who need to know that God is with them and cares about them even in the midst of great pain and loss.
