FIRST AID FOR THE MATCH (5TH REVISED EDITION)

McGraw-Hill Education - Europe. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, First Aid for the Match (5th Revised edition), Tao Le, Vikas Bhushan, Christina Shenvi, Make or break advice on getting into the residency program of your choice. Written by medical students who recently completed the match process, "First Aid for the Match" is a insider's guide to preparing for and succeeding in the match process. The fifth edition features a new, two-color interior design, the latest statistics and advice on matching in each specialty and major sub-specialty, advice on preparing for the 4th year of medical school, and special considerations for IMGs and residents with young families. A chapter on what to do if you don't match ('the scramble') is also included. Chapters on polishing your CV and writing stellar application essays, plus tips on 'wowing' them during the interview, will help you map your career path and plan appropriately for success. This title features statistics and advice on matching in all major specialties and now - as well as major sub-specialties. It includes: perspectives by residents/fellows about each sub-specialty and why/how they chose it, what their thought process was in choosing it, the attractions and challenges of the field, the future of the field, etc.; application and interview tips, including expanded section on interview questions to include more questions for all interviews, as well as for each specialty; added examples of difficult or unexpected questions and examples of good ways to think about answering certain questions and things to avoid saying; expanded section of CVs and high-impact personal statements with real examples and advice on what not to do; advice for international medical graduates and residents with young families; advice on travelling to interviews, with new ideas and tips for travel/lodging, and useful websites; and, comprehensive guide to the...
