Not illustrated. 1858 Excerpt: .afterwrads cancelled and the stock re-transferred, it would seem to require a vast deal of labor to find out where, and how the mistake occurred. On adding up the total of the Ledger Stock Accounts at the end of the month (assuming that the Ledger postings are taken from the Eecord of Certificate), there would appear to be an over issue of forty-five shares, and in order to ascertain how it occurred, the various Ledger entries for the month would probably be first compared with the last-named book; but this operation, it is obvious, would give no light on the subject. On a comparison, however, between the Certificate margins, and the Record of Certificates, the error would be discovered, but it might be too late to have a proper remedy afforded. MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS. Powers of Attorney, to Transfer Stock. It often happens that Brokers or Bankers find it inconvenient to attend personally at the Transfer office to make transfers. In such cases, many of them execute to one of their clerks what may be termed a General Power of Attorney, applicable however to Stock of one Company only. The following form of such Letter of Attorney has been deemed sufficiently safe and satisfactory: Know all Men by these Presents, That I, A. B., of the City, County, and State of New York, have made, constituted, and appointed, and by these presents do make, constitute, and appoint E. P. of the same place, my true and lawful...
