ANOTHER SPRING (PAPERBACK)

iUniverse, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Former WWII fighter pilot, Reed Hunter, married the daughter of a wealthy self-made millionaire. Though he adored her, the high life, paid for by her father, interfered with Hunter s serious intention to become a writer. Her accidental death freed him to get back to work. He chose a small summer resort in N H, rejected her estate and her father s offer of money and went to work Living frugally he believed he could produce a publishable work within a year. His life as a recluse didn t last. Invitations from merchants wives plus: the sudden appearance of Sarah Goodwin like a wood nymph ready, on the advice of her Aunt Pearl, to offer herself as housekeeper; Les Turner, an independent local handyman seeking Hunter s advice on his sexual dilemma with a summer person; Bea Lockwood, a summer person, a college English Instructor, frightened of her gorgeous body. All of that and many more interesting characters you will never forget plus a murder the local Sheriff seems determined not to solve sets Hunter and the Town at odds. Another Spring tells an unusual suspenseful story of high and low life in a rural community more than 50 years ago. For the submission history of Another Spring and the first chapter, link to.
