Not illustrated. 1894 Excerpt: .trenches, and throwing up breast-works in order that they may more scientifically and with greater dispatch massacre one another, set them to macadamizing all the roads in the country? Coin the vast amount of bullion now lying in our vaults; reopen the great mining interests of the West that are now closed and causing such;distress, and almost starvation. Then Bould there be a deficiency, substitute legal tender and treasury notes, and pay them well for their labor. Surely this would be the more Christ-like, and make the nation prosper and bloom like the rose, and every fireside throughout the land. would be cheers and smiles, instead of tears and mourning. In conclusion, let us all implore Congress to stop its contemptible harangue, and carry out the provisions of the Constitution, establish a national bureau on public roads, and set the two millions of unemployed laborers to...
