MANAGEMENT OF ORGANISATIONAL STRESS

New Century Publications, New Delhi, 2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First. 14 cms. 188pp. Stress is a perceived dynamic state involving uncertainty about something important. Stress results mainly because the individual wants an interaction and not a transaction with the environment. In other words, stress is caused by the absence of an answer, lack of return on invested time and effort and/or lack of a two-way relationship with the environment. This book on management of organisational stress takes a comprehensive...
