They had not-time to try one steed, As orders to move came from General Meade; The day we started we had inspection, And our brigade passed without objection. In the afternoon orders came to march, Citizens rushed into camp and for grub did search; We left this place just at sundown, And at nine oclock reached Warrentown, Where we bivouacked until morning came, Then started on our march again. For Culpepper Court House we made our way, Passing White Sulphur Springs on this day, Which, was once a famous summer resort, And took the change of many a sport; This place was visited by many a southern belle, And no doubt paid the proprietor well. The buildings were very much dilapidated, And this property was all confiscated. Here we crossed the Rappahannock river On a corduroy bridge, which much did quiver. We...
